To whom it may concern

My wife and I have grown up in a Christian country and community where we believe that there is a Supreme Being and Power, namely God, and that all life is given and taken by and in line with His will and timing. In line with all that we have come to believe, we believe that all life begins at conception. In this position we concede that there must be times where the life of the mother is endangered by the birth or conception and then a very difficult decision has to be made by all involved with prayerful direction as to which life is to be saved. This is the one and only circumstance where we could support any abortion.

Therefore we wish to voice our total opposition to any changes to the Abortion Bill.
