Dear committee members,

I humbly ask that you oppose the current bills before parliament that seek to change the current abortion laws.

Our current laws have sufficient provisions to safeguard the health and well-being of the mother and baby.

Many examples can be provided that show babies yet-to-be-born experience pain and to allow further breadth of abortion provisions, including to late-term, will add to the harm and risk to both mother and baby. Therefore,

I once again seek to emphasize my opposition to any weakening of the current provisions and seek your support in recommending that the current bills be defeated.

Yours sincerely,

Tim Young
