Dear Committee Members

Abortion is murder of an unborn child. So many mothers, let alone fathers, who allow their unborn children to be euthanised (murdered) have deep regrets later that deeply affects their health and well being and at times leads to suicide.

The only abortions that may be allowed should be if the birth would be a critical danger to the mother's health or of terrible deformity or disease of the fetus. If rape is involved that has been notified to the police it may be a reason to consider abortion if it can be shown to seriously affect the woman and the police give their consent.

Anyone who consents to sexual intercourse has a responsibility to care for the results of that action so should not be able to have an abortion except for the circumstances stated above.

I hope that these matters will be given full consideration.

Dennis O'Neill
