Dear Health Committee,

If I asked another person how they felt about the second world war where millions died and they replied that they felt neutral frankly one would not have much respect for that person.

Similarly, if one loves people, they will hate the Holocaust. One would weep with a broken heart over the 6 million Jews who lost their lives. One would feel angry and indignant. We may think that if we lived in those times, we would surely oppose the terrible regime and not remain apathetic over the atrocities committed. Would we really?

Whether or not we believe in some higher power or some kind of God, it is our conscience that bears witness against us. If one does believe God exists, surely He would avenge the babies who were helplessly murdered.

If you love babies, you must hate abortion. Yet we murder babies in their mother's wombs, and allow it to happen without batting an eye. Our modern society really makes Hitler seem like a choir boy.

Please reject the Abortion Bill.

Regards,

Eva
