Dear Secretary

I am 11 years old and my name is Emily, I'm strongly against abortion. Because mothers sometimes get forced to kill their beautiful baby or they think their baby is not a human, just some blood and a bunch of cells. We need to think that somebody else would adopt the baby, and change the laws to make adoption easier. Because every baby child or anyone is the future to our world. People used to think that black people weren't real humans, very terrifying. Now we know better but we still need to learn that unborn babies are humans. please protect the unborn babies so we don't kill our future.

yours faithfully

Emily Anderson
