Dear Ms Sue Cawcutt

Thank you for your reply / enquire. Yes please! I picked your address and some others from a "No to abortion" email. I don't know how it works - i just do not agree with killing unborn humans. I understood that it is a polling issue. If the Parliamentary Commission is the right address, by all means, let it go there. This is my opinion in this issue, and this is "my straw to the stack." I understand that the Paliamentary Commission works on peoples' opinions, so I do reiterate: NO to abortion. Silence is = agreeing = guilty. The only exception, to my understanding, would be a life threatening situation, where abortion is the only medical solution.

Yours sincerely

Matti Koskelainen

Dear Ms and Mr Koskelainen

Thank you for your email to the Health, Communities, Disability Services and Domestic and Family Violence Committee of the Queensland Parliament.

It is not clear whether you intended your email to be directed to the Parliamentary Committee as a potential submission to its inquiry, or whether you intended your email to be sent to someone else. Could you please advise me whether or not you wish your email to be considered by the Parliamentary Committee as a potential submission?

Yours sincerely

Sue Cawcutt

Wake up selfish, hypocritical activists! Whose rights; children's or women's? Human life is of eternal value - "inconvenience" of child bearing and upppbringing is just some 20 years. Unrepentant murderers end up in hell. NO earthly government has any authority to ignore God's law. - Please do not bring on curse on our beutiful nation!
