The Blood of innocent Australian children will be on your hands.
The blood cries out curses will be on you and this land.
People are desperate to adopt babies and if you pass a law that the mother and child will be protected and the child adopted instead of slaughtered.
Think about your responsibility you are in a position to save lives and help families to adopt instead of murder!
Enough of the blood cries out curse ! Heal the land of Australia!
