Dear Sirs/ Mesdames,

I totally oppose the abortion bill presently coming before parliament.

It is obvious within a very short time after conception that the human embryo is indeed a living human being. To abort that embryo should therefore be classified as murder - an offence that should rightly be punishable by law, certainly not allowed as would be considered by members of parliament.

I plead therefore, for a rejection of this bill. It is indeed an abomination!

Yours faithfully,
Ken Pheeney
