To the Inquiry Secretary

Rob Pyne's latest members bill is promoting bad law, a grave loss of freedom for health workers, conscientious objectors and people of faith.

A parliament which presides over and promotes laws that kill innocent Australian citizens is barbaric and obscene. The arguments used to support abortion are the same arguments used to support genocide and slavery. First you reduce or eliminate the humanity of the person so that you can sell or justify inhuman uncivilised behaviour.

Health workers are in the health system to help, heal and save the lives of sick and injured people. Pregnancy is not an illness, it is not a cancerous growth it is actually the normal result of the reproductive systems of male and female humans. Health workers who seek to do no harm will be forced to take the innocent lives of others or lose their livelihood. Do we want butchers in the health system who operate without a conscience having no concern for the life and wellbeing of their patients? When a woman is pregnant the doctor has two patients not one.

A safe zone is only required if someone is in danger. Those that seek to offer an alternative to killing an innocent baby need to have the freedom to offer the mother an alternative to the violent death of her child. There is no safe zone in an abortion clinic for a beautiful innocent child.

I appeal to the politicians to rise above the world of the past where we had slaves and murdered people because of race, colour or religion. Today we need to act so as not to add age as yet another reason to murder innocent human beings.

Yours faithfully

Anthony Quinn
