To whom it may concern,

Our apologies for a late reply concerning Outdoor Advertising. However, this topic is close to our hearts as we have two young children.

We ask that you make a stand for the families and children of our state and stipulate that outdoor advertising must be G-Rated.

Thank you for considering the moral foundation of our society and upholding these values by monitoring what is seen by this generation and future generations of children.

Yours Sincerely,

Brynley and Rachelle Sadler
