

From: William Burns
To: Health and Community Services Committee
Subject: Billboard advising
Date: Sunday, 23 June 2013 5:12:56 PM

To whom it may concern,

As a father of five children I have found that the level of explicit sexual material displayed on some billboards to be highly offensive. This type of advertising denigrates women and is inappropriate for children to view. It is particularly upsetting to have to somehow shield your children from this. All advertising should be G rated.

Yours sincerely,
Bill Burns.