I would like to add my voice to the campaign to see outdoor advertising be 'G' rated. As a mother with two young children - one who is starting to read - I am concerned about what they see when we are out and about, beyond my control. Please do whatever you can to protect our children's innocence in the realm of outdoor advertising. There are so many avenues available to advertisers these days - outdoor advertising should be regulated to ensure outdoor ads are acceptable to the entire community.

Thanks.
