To the Members of Parliament: I wish to object to inappropriate (sexual advertising) and especially homosexual behaviour being portrayed blatantly on large billboards on my way to work. The number of complaints were substantial but were completely ignored by the powers that be that there was nothing wrong with it.

I would like to voice my disapproval of anything of the same being allowed to be shown in such a manner and ask that the members check the very public outrage that these revolting advertising messages engender and that the people who are in charge of monitoring these actions do the right thing or be removed from their positions as they are not doing their job.

Yours sincerely
Cheryl Flanagan
