Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to strongly request that the Queensland government endorse plans to make public spaces in Queensland G-rated. Only today I heard of a mother who had to comfort her daughter who was suffering nightmares because of DVD covers she had seen at her local video store. Every day I pass by a sexually explicit poster in a bus station right outside Cavendish Road State High School. It is outrageous that free citizens have to be bombarded with these images - let alone expose them to children without any censure.

Please act on this important issue promptly.

With thanks,
