

Crocodile Control and Conservation Bill 2024

Submission No: 3
Submitted by: Paul Creighton
Publication: Making the submission and your name public
Attachments: No attachment

Submitter Comments:

I personally feel that the role of Director has too much responsibility, and would like to suggest two individuals appointed to oversee the Bill. Roles to include a Director of Control and a Director of Conservation and they must both sign off and agree after consultation with traditional land owners.