Submitter Comments:

I wish to congratulate the Queensland government for this amendment for it allows for the scientific fact that, at conception, a complete human being exists. Certainly at birth this human being has developed wonderfully and MUST be protected. This praiseworthy amendment shows that parliamentarians still have a moral character and believes in the commandment THOU SHALT NOT KILL. Thank you very much. If this amendment does NOT go through parliament, members will have to take responsibility for the resultant deaths.
