Subject: Re killing babies after failed abortion.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I write to you in regard to the above.

The killing of live babies after a failed abortion is murder. This is a terrible crime, and these babies need to be given a chance to live, and with the shortage of adoption babies there is a good case for this.

Also with the rate of people being born compared to a large increase in older people, we need more young people to support our rapidly aging population.

Yours,
JMJ Laws,
