Submitter Comments:

Every child has the right to the best medical care, it is fundamental to being a human being, not an like animal who will sometimes devour their young. Not to care for a living baby is a total abomination, and is in complete defiance of all doctors' oaths to value the sanctify of life. It is murder to kill (or not assist when the opportunity is there), so as such , the person(s) perpetrating this inhumane act is a murderer(s) and should be sent to jail. This justice is an act of law in Australia. Thou shalt not murder is also a command of Almighty God.
