I believe it is essential to provide healthcare to a baby that is born alive during an abortion. It is absolutely abhorrent that this has not been happening. It is a basic human right to receive healthcare, these babies are humans and need to be protected and cared for accordingly. They did not ask to be born and then left to die.

We do not treat animals like this so why are we allowing precious human life to be treated in this way. It's the Government's responsibility to provide legislation for such a basic human right for the most vulnerable human beings in our communities.

It is the Government responsibility to ensure that this legislation is passed as failure to do so is a far cry from what we stand for as a country. We believe in taking care of those that need help in this country not being partied to allow wrongful deaths to tiny human beings.

I urge you to recommend to the Parliament that they pass this legislation. There are so many people in this country that can not have children. These babies could be loved and adopted by these people. It simply does not make sense in any way for these babies to be dying a lonely cold death if it can be prevented.
