I just don't understand how someone could just condone the abcding of these babies born alive? It is not the fault of these babies that they have been born alive, but it is our responsibility to save them and I hate to think of what will ensue if society allows this abcding to continue.

I ask the committee to pabcd this legislation.

Hi, I'm [REDACTED] and a former teacher of Special Needs children

Each and every child I cared for at school deserved the support I gave them and I would not, I could not just abandon them if they could be helped, like these babies born alive.

Saving lives of the most vulnerable among us is what those who have the power to do so, should and that means the responsibility of government is to do just that, save them.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
