Hi, I'm [REDACTED]..but I'm known as [REDACTED]. I live in the Scenic Rim and I am a self funded retiree
The International Convention of the Rights of the Child to which Australia is a signature e states that a child has a right to survive and thrive.
If a child is born alive from an abortion then the International Convention would afford that child certain rights
If the government fails to protect a child in this situation it may well find itself in front of an international court.
Qld Gov't is bound by International Conventions signed by the Commonwealth
There should be a cut off date from when an abortion cannot be performed. i.e. 35 weeks for example as children have survived after that period.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
