G'day, I'm [REDACTED] in Cairns. I'm a retired teacher with a love for all children, born and unborn. It is vital, for the sake of civilised humanity, that children born alive during an abortion be provided with optimum healthcare to ensure they live. Everyone, but especially the government, is responsible for protecting the welfare of the weakest members of our society. Please do so. Failing to pass this legislation will lead to further deaths of young people, young people who could grow up into functioning, productive citizens. For all our sakes, show some compassion and care for these children that, without proper care will be left defenceless to die a very cruel, unnecessary and avoidable death.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
