I urge this committee to do the right thing for the preservation of humanity by recommending that Parliament pass this legislation.

Hullo. I'm a mother and grandmother and a retired nurse.

New life is a miracle, and a most precious gift. All life is to be highly valued. Adults are responsible for the safety and nurturing of infants. Adults have consciences to enable them to protect helpless and innocent babies.

We need a government who will make the protection of helpless babies their number one priority for Australia. Australian citizens need to see that our government takes initiatives to restore our society to its former standard of the sanctity of human lives.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
