It is imperative that we protect and abcdist in the health and wellbeing of our most vulnerable. To leave these babies who are born alive after an abortion,,unattended and not to provide proper medical care is barbaric. if we cant give proper care to those who are without a voice and defenceless, what are we becoming as a society

The Qld and indeed the Australian Government must step up and abcdist in treating all Australians and that includes these poor defenceless babies.

if the Government does not step up and see the importance of looking after our newborns, whether they are born alive after a failed abortion, we as a society are falling into a very slippery slope. our sociey is in decay I ask the committee to recommend that the parliament consider this important legislation and give it an over whelming pabcd.
