Hi, I'm [REDACTED]. I'm a retired teacher and [REDACTED].
These babies are human beings and have rights regardless of anything else. Surviving an abortion attempt is a God-given miracle. Leaving a baby to die is an abominable act. It should be illegal. Save these innocent children and remember, there are many people waiting to adopt a baby.
Ultimately, it is our government decision-makers who are responsible for the deaths of unwanted babies. The policies and guidelines must change for the sake of the most innocent and most vulnerable.
You will be known as cruel, black-hearted, barbaric should you continue with the cruel policy in place. More voters will understand the depth of your inhumanity.
If you still have no care in your hearts for innocent lives and Parliament does not pass this legislation, your names will be on record for judgement. Your decision will display what type of people Australians really are.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
