I believe it is essential for babies born alive during an abortion to be provided healthcare, because every living person should have healthcare as a human right.
Every society must protect the weak and vulnerable particularly at risk babies in these circumstances.
If the government fails to protect the most vulnerable humans, it will be a direct violation of human rights.
I urge the committee to recommend that the legislation be passed in parliament.
Hi, I'm [REDACTED], and I am a mum of three beautiful boys
