Public Submission by Alexandra Elliott.

If this legislation fails to pabcd the trauma to those innocent babies, but also, I believe, to all involved in these cirabcdstances over time will be grave.

Please use common sense. Look at the situation. Look at the baby. Listen to your gut instinct to protect the most vulnerable among us. Don't walk away and hide in another room (or another government building) while it dies in pain and terror.

Hi, I'm Alexandra, I live in Brisbane and am a stay at home mother to 4 children.

Having experienced 4 births of 4 healthy babies I can't abcdhom leaving a newborn, however wanted, alone in the moments after their birth, let alone leaving it alone to die.

Any human, whatever their developmental state or however wanted, or unwanted, deserves to be treated equally.

Sincerely, Alexandra Elliott
