If you will not act to protect the weakest and most vulnerable in our society, it signals that you would not act to protect anyone. This is the most basic expectation we have of our government. To protect the innocent and to guard them from harm.
If you fail to pass this legislation I wouldn't be surprised but it would signal an ongoing lack of humanity or morality on the part of this government.
Please show us to be wrong in thinking you'll just bin the legislation. Act with humanity and pass the legislation.
My name is [REDACTED].
If babies are born alive after an abortion, as has happened, it is barbarism pure and simple that these infants are not provided with medical care and not just left to die. That this is the way things are done right now makes me feel like we have lost any sense of humanity.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
