Hi , I'm [REDACTED] , I am a builder and [REDACTED]
I personally and my Family with me see babies as future adults, I started as a baby and so did everyone I know. Children are a gift from God, I have 4 children and love them incredibly. to think of having a baby born alive and not trying to keep it alive doesn't make any sense to me.
My fear is that as life becomes worthless to the government, where does it stop, To me it's a slippery slope. Population decline, Nurses and doctors having ptsd from watching children die when they swore oaths to uphold and practice life saving medicine, the healthcare system will fall apart on the inside,
I would please urge you to consider the difference between a wanted baby and an unwanted baby when born alive and aim to create a space for preservation of life and worst case care before death of these infants.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
