Hi ,i,m Peter I live on the Sunny Coast,and i,m retired
It is the human response to such a situation and not to do so is simply barbaric.

Just as Doctors should first do no harm,governments should protect the most vulnerable as well as all others in our society.

vulnerable

If this is allowed to continued to let these children die, society becomes less humane.

This is the vary least that Parliament should do and pabcd the amendments to The Children born Alive.

Sincerely, Peter Liljeqvist
