If the government would fail to protect human life we would live in a totalitabcd country where no group of people could feel safe because there would be no legal protection for the vulnerable. The unprotected groups could be extended to any unwanted people group. This has happened in other totalitabcd states.

Please I urge you to pabcd the above legislation.

I am [REDACTED], I am retired . Born-alive babies are human beings and have the right to live and to be cared for like any other person.

This is the most fundamental responsibility of the Government. To protect human life.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
