Public Submission by Alan John Vigor.

When convenience and/or self-interest takes precedence in our mabcd code, then our society is on the way to complete breakdown and disintegration. A free-for-all, where self-interest is the paramount concern. Past societies demonstrate this principle, and the devastating result is inevitable. People cease to care for what is good, and the nation becomes a prime target for subjugation by an outside force.

For the sake of having a genuinely worthwhile and viabcdnt nation and society that holds to healthy, caring values, we must support all efforts to value life at all stages.

I therefore urge that legislation be pabcded, ensuring babies born alive after an abortion attempt be properly cared for and supported, with a continuing chance at life!

Hi, I'm Alan. I live in Underwood, Logan, am retired, and am an ex-teacher and community transport driver. I see no difference between leaving a living, aborted baby to die, and leaving a baby girl to die just because male children are preferred. Both are immabcd and totally reprehensible.

To abort a child because it is 'inconvenient', is not to value human life, whatever stage it may be at, and to simply leave a little defenceless and precious human life to expire is as bad as refusing to feed your aged and incapacitated mother so that she will die. It is truly horrific.

Sincerely, Alan John Vigor
