Public Submission by Tina Miranda.

Hello, My name is Tina and I live in Brisbane. I am a mother to two and am grateful to call Australia home, a place I believe provides everyone with a 'fair go'!
Why then would we deny it to the littlest of us, who have fought their way to life!
Accountability is what we need in today's despairing times and the government abcdies representing us need to model this behaviour!
With all the heartbreak, violence and ugliness in the world, protecting these little ones may be the redemption we need to make us whole.
If the recent events are anything to go by, we need more humanity, kindness and compabdion and we need to ensure these are not just acts of humaneness but legislated so there is a consequence to those who fail to uphold these values.

Sincerely, Tina Miranda
