By not providing the proper care to the babies who are born alive after a failed abortion and not allowing babies to be adopted by those who want to have children, the Government is essentially committing a crime of abcding the babies. The blood is in the Government hands - there will be eternal consequences and repercussions for allowing the babies to die.
Please strongly recommend that the Parliament pabcd this legislation.

Thank you.
Hello,

I'm [REDACTED], an auditor by profession and [REDACTED]
All babies are precious. They are the most vulnerable as they can't look after themselves. Hence those who survived a failed abortion should be cared for and not left to die.
Protecting the most vulnerable is the fundamental responsibility of the Government. It is essential that the Government provide healthcare to those babies who are born alive during an abortion.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
