Hi, [REDACTED] and I am a business abcdyst.
Providing healthcare to a baby born alive during an abortion is the most fundamental human right, and I could not imagine anyone would even consider any other alternative.
A helpless baby, just born, could not be more vulnerable. It is the most fundamental responsibility of the government to protect this precious person.
In good conscience, I would be unable to support any government that does not value and protect human life, this being a prime example.
Please pabcd this legislation!

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
