Hi I'm [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and I'm a teacher.
I believe it is part of the duty of care of a healthcare professional to preserve life at all costs and that includes preterm babies.
The government and its rules are in place to prevent anarchy in a human society and it is the governments responsibility to make legislation to protect people including vulnerable children.
If the government fails to pabcd this legislation they are supporting inhumane treatment of their fellow man and are complicit in the deaths of those vulnerable children.
I urge you to recommend that the legislation be pabced.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
