Hi I'm [REDACTED]
It's essential to provide care to babies born alive.
Govt is leadership. Oil flows down. We need to teach our species that we are diff to animals. We can process complex empathy and thought. It's what sets us apart as a species, it's a unique intelligence. To not do so places humankind on the precipice of hurtling to extinction.
Why because when a species turns on itself with no remote the end of that species is nigh. Whe have freedom of choice. I choose life not extinction.
Choose to give a fighting chance to the voiceless who have survived death knocking at the door. The one you choose to save maybe the doctor who saves yr grandchild or the next IT guru or Prime Minister. They are born to fight and win for you for themselves for mankind's right to exist on this planet

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
