Good morning, I'm [REDACTED]. I am retired.
I believe we have a responsibility to provide healthcare for babies born alive during an abortion because they are a real person and should be treated as such.
The government is responsible for the protection of the citizens of the community. Just because they are newborn, does not make any difference. They are still a person.
If the government fails to pass this legislation, we are setting the precedent for us becoming a barbaric and not a civil society.
I urge the committee to pass this legislation. There are many, many people, who can't have a child of their own, who would love to adopt a child.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
