I urge the committee to recommend that the Parliament, for the sake of our country, our families, our healthcare workers and the smallest among us, please pass this legislation.

Hi, my name is [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] with three adult children and two grandchildren.

I believe it's essential for our values and dignity as an Australian society to provide healthcare to babies born alive during an abortion.

Protecting our most vulnerable is one of the most fundamental responsibilities of the Government.

The impact on us as a society may not be felt immediately, but over time if we do not protect our most vulnerable little ones, a shift on the value of a person will be felt throughout our society. Also, our precious healthcare workers who work hard to give life and health to those they treat, will lose heart.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
