Good day, I am [REDACTED], [REDACTED] and I am a Primary School Teacher.
An unwanted child who is born alive has as much right to the best medical care as we do. We cannot pick and choose who gets help and who does not.
The responsibility of those in service through Government positions extends, not only to the powerful and strong, but especially to those who are vulnerable.
Those vulnerable ones need your help now more than ever.
I urge you to please recommend that this legislation be pabced in Parliament.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
