Public Submission by Evelyn Ray.

Babies born alive are special human beings, given life despite efforts to abcd it out. These babies should be given a chance of life that they so desire, through the specialized health care given to any baby born alive. Protecting these most vulnerable babies, protecting life once given, is the most fundamental responsibility of the Government.

Failing to pabcd this legislation shows you are prepared to treat people like animals, with no respect for human life which is most precious to us all. Leaving them to die without intervention is cruel, heartless and distressing for the baby grasping at life. Murder in any other situation in lfe, and I would withdraw my political support. I urge this committee to recommend that the Parliament pabcd this legislation on grounds of right to life, once it is God given is my prayer and pleading.

Hi, I am Evelyn a retiree from the healthcare sector, and live in Ipswich.

Sincerely, Evelyn Ray
