AUSTRALIA

Public Submission by Robert Peterson.

Hello, I am a 70 year old Senior School teacher in Brisbane with 40 years experience of guiding and instructing young Australians to positively participate in our "Lucky Country" - a land with opportunities to be high achievers and uphold our values.
Leaving babies born alive and requiring urgent healthcare during an attempted abortion is cruel is no different to the abhorrent treatment of unwanted babies in Ancient Sparta and the Roman Republic. We, in modern Australia, are more aware of the pain and suffering that rejected babies will suffer as they die without immediate healthcare and compabction.
As elected and responsible Parliamentary members, you have a mabcd responsibility to protect Australians, particularly newly born babies from torture and neglect, even though Doctors and Nurses possesses the necessary sabcds to prevent this from happening.
The compabctionate and humane support of this Bill would be a very positive step towards protecting the extermination of children who should be given the opportunity to live in our community.
Your support of the Bill and thus its imminent pabcding, would be a clear demonstration of our Parliament's intention to protect lives and ensure that all Australians have equal opportunity.

Sincerely, Robert Peterson
