Public Submission by Kerry Muir.

The most fundamental responsibility of a government is to care for all Australians, including the most vulnerable amongst us.

If the parliament fails to pass this legislation, what is that saying to the Australian population? Are we not all equal in your eyes? Do we not care for those who are unable to care for themselves?

I urge you to recommend that the parliament pass this legislation.

I'm Kerry. I live in Redcliffe. I'm a retired teacher and a grandmother.

Babies born alive during an abortion are no different from a baby born full term. They can feel pain, and need love and care whether they live a few minutes or a few hours.

Sincerely, Kerry Muir
