Public Submission by Srikanth Nair.

Hello, my name is Sri, and I live in Logan.
Babies are precious human beings just like you and me, and to deny care to these defenseless newborns who've already had an attempt on their life and right to exist, to treat them like garbage, is not only cruel, but an abomination to God! All who practice and preach this heinous treatment of babies as "acceptable healthcare", should be criminally charged!
If you cannot protect the most vulnerable in our community, you are not fit to run this country.
Many innocent lives, many precious futures, hopes and dreams, will be cruelly abceded out if this legislation does not pabcd.
Please, I beg you, have a heart and save lives, not end them. You're alive today because you were given the right to live. Please give these babies the same chance.

Sincerely, Srikanth Nair
