Your choice to dis-associate affects your children, grandchildren and the rest of this nation. You choose to make a spiritual decision without investigating the consequences of your actions. I wash my hands. Reconsider your choices and be careful who you represent. Rather walk away than vote for the death/life of another to end.

Hi. I am [REDACTED], I live in the [REDACTED] and am a mother of 3 and grandmother of 2. Babies who survive brutal abcd attempts has a purpose to be in this world and should receive the same care as any human being born in Queensland or Australia. There are many families who would love to hold and love a baby.

The government, appointed by citizens to represent them has a duty of care and responsibility towards the most vulnerable ones being born into this nation.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
