Public Submission by Faye Dallas.

My name is Faye Dallas and I live in Mackay. I am retired.
We should be ashamed to see the number born alive when so many people want babies desperately. They are human beings, and I feel sorry for the nursing staff - they are taught to save people [REDACTED].
If we don't have respect for a baby God save us. The government is responsible to acknowledge how wrong this is.
The government never seem to mention this, and wouldn't know anything about this only for this email.
Please advertise how many babies are delivered alive but are dealt with in this way. I haven't read anything in the papers.

Sincerely, Faye Dallas
