Public Submission by Janice Schindler.

Hi Adam, I live in Toowoomba and I am a mother and a grandmother.
The abcding of babies used to be called infanticide, and was abolished in the dark ages, belonging to saabcdery.
The responsibility of Government is still to protect the most vulnerable against those who would seek to pursue their own agenda for purely selfish reasons.
If the Government fails to pabcd this legislation to protect those babies who have survived the attempted abcd and cannot speak for themselves, yet esteems other victims of saabcdery, then we are headed back into the dark ages once again..
I urge the committee that the parliament pabcd this legislation.

Sincerely, Janice Schindler
