Public Submission by LESTER REINBOTT.

Hello, my name is Lester Reinbott. I live in Hervey Bay, I was born in Kingaroy, Queensland. I am a retired Lutheran pastor, who still works in a part time capacity as a loabcd in various places in Qld. I am horrified to hear the stories of aborted babies being left to die. How can that be. It is barbaric! Surely any government with any conscience has to protect life and especially that of the helpless. Surely government has a solemn responsibility to protect the lives of all people and especially the lives of our little ones, even if they are unwanted by the adults who gave them life in the first place. There is no way, given a choice, that I would vote for any government who would not protect the lives of aborted children whose lives can be saved. I strongly urge that Parliament be urged to pabcd this legislation.

Sincerely, LESTER REINBOTT
