If this legislation fails who decides whether a child should live or die?
I ask the committee to seriously consider the ramifications of this bill for civilised society and human suffering and pass the legislation to protect life.
Hi I'm [REDACTED], and I'm a retired teacher.
A baby born alive during an abortion is no less a life than any other human being. They deserve the right to health care and maintain life.
Watching a child die without support or protection is unconscionable to me and for anyone in civilised society.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
