Failure to ensure the protection and equal treatment of all babies born alive during an abortion would make society and government both heartless and discriminatory in their actions based on an incorrect classification of the value of human life.

Please pass this legislation. It serves only to protect the most vulnerable who cannot advocate for themselves.

Hello, I am [REDACTED]. I live in [REDACTED] and am a mother, grandmother and compliance auditor.

Every child has the moral and ethical right to equal protection and treatment. A child who is born alive after an abortion should not be discarded because of their mother and father's lack of interest in their lives or well being. Each human being has their own value and inherent dignity.

The first and most important role of any government is to protect their citizens no matter their circumstances.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]
